

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director

Jim,

The attached came up in an envelope marked for the DCI. Having read it, I believe this was intended as something in response to the DCI's invitation for "new ideas"; hence, I am passing to you.

This document is a good example of over classification, particularly the ORCON caveat. Other agencies have jokingly referred to a CIA penchant for "pre classified" terms for their reports - this example would appear to support that contention.
